

A WOMAN'S GRATITUDE.

A Mountain Woman Writes in Praise of Newbro's Herpicide.

"For several years I have been troubled with dandruff, causing me much annoyance, and my hair became very thin. I have used Newbro's Herpicide for a month and the dandruff has entirely disappeared and my hair is becoming much heavier than formerly. New hair is growing where there was none and I am very thankful to you for the benefit I have received from Newbro's Herpicide.

Very truly yours,

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE TERRITORY OF ARIZONA.

In the matter of C. E. Smith, in Bankruptcy.

Upon consideration of the verified petition of George F. Dittmann, Boot & Shoe Company, a corporation of the city of St. Louis, State of Missouri, Barton Bros., a co-partnership, of Kansas City, Jackson County in the State of Missouri, aforesaid, and the Zeckendorf & Company, a co-partnership, of Tucson, County of Pima, Territory of Arizona, praying that the above named C. E. Smith, now or formerly of Tempe, in said Third Judicial District be declared a bankrupt, it is ordered that the said C. E. Smith do appear at this Court, as Court of Bankruptcy, to be held at Phoenix, in the County of Maricopa, in the District aforesaid, on the 19th day of March, 1904, at 9:30 o'clock in the forenoon, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted: And it appearing from the affidavit of Albert Steinfield, duly filed herein, this day, that the residence or whereabouts of the said C. E. Smith is unknown, it is further ordered that service of said petition and the subpoena issued thereon be made upon the said C. E. Smith by publication of this order in the Arizona Republican, a public newspaper published at Phoenix in said District, for six successive weeks, and that the last of such publications shall appear in said newspaper at least one week before the date aforesaid, and by leaving a copy of said petition together with said writ of subpoena and this order at the last usual place of abode of said C. E. Smith in said District at least one week before the date aforesaid.

Witness, the Hon. Edward Kent, Judge of said Court, and seal thereof, at Phoenix, in said County and District aforesaid, this 22nd day of January, A. D. 1904.

(Signed) EDWARD KENT, Judge.

PRESENTS: That we, the undersigned, have this day voluntarily associated ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of the Territory of Arizona.

AND WE HEREBY CERTIFY: First: That the name of said corporation is the MOUNTAINEER GOLD MINES.

Second: That the principal place of transacting the business of this corporation shall be in the City of Phoenix, County of Maricopa, Territory of Arizona, and that the name of the agent therein and in charge thereof, upon whom process against this corporation may be served, is Charles F. Almsworth, or such agent as may be hereafter appointed by the Board of Directors of this company.

Third: This corporation shall have a branch office in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, where meetings of the stockholders and Board of Directors may be held and business of the company transacted.

Fourth: That the objects for which this corporation is formed are:—

(a). To engage in the business of mining, milling, smelting, refining, reducing, marketing and selling gold, silver, copper, lead, zinc, iron and other metals, oils and minerals, and the products thereof; and to acquire, own, hold, use and enjoy all lands, franchises, privileges, easements, mills, smelters, refineries, machinery, conduits, aqueducts, reservoirs, tanks, pipes, paraphernalia and things whatsoever necessary for the proper carrying on and conducting of the said businesses, or either or any of them;

(b). To conduct generally, in all its branches, the reduction, smelting, assaying and refining of ores, sulphurates, metals and other substances containing precious metals;

(c). To buy, own, hold, construct and otherwise deal in smelters;

(d). To engage in commercial and shipping business, in all its branches; to buy and sell, or otherwise to deal or to traffic in gold, silver, iron, steel, manganese, copper, stone, ores, coal, coke, wood, lumber, and other material, and any of the products thereof, and any articles consisting or partly consisting thereof;

(e). To own, lease, purchase, patent, acquire, appropriate, locate, operate, work, develop, buy, sell, mortgages, pledge and otherwise deal in real and personal property of every kind, including water, steam and electric power, and also deal in placer, quartz and gravel mines, lumbering, mills, mill sites, smelters, water-rig, hotels, warehouses, docks, copy rights and patents, also franchises, rights of way, stocks, bonds and securities, both public and private;

(f). To buy, sell, construct, operate, charter and lease generally in all kinds of steam and sailing vessels, barges and boats, and navigate the same in all navigable waters of the earth for any and all purposes;

(g). To engage in and carry on generally the business of manufacturing, mining, constructing, mercantile, mechanical, construction, commission, lumbering, transportation, shipping and commercial business in all their branches;

(h). To own, hold, acquire, buy, sell, lease, mortgage and convey and in corporate stock of every description and, while holder or owner thereof, to vote the same;

(i). To carry on the trade or business of storing goods and warehousing; to issue warrants to persons warehousing goods with the company and make advances upon the security of such goods;

(j). To act in fiduciary capacity in every manner;

(k). And, in the usual course of business of said corporation and for the purposes incidental to the legitimate business for which the corporation is formed, to borrow and loan money and to give and accept securities;

(l). To do and perform all other things necessary or incident to the purposes hereinabove set forth, and to transact any and all kinds of business which a natural person may lawfully engage in.

Fifth: That the term for which said corporation is to exist is twenty-five (25) years from and after the date of its incorporation, and may thereafter be renewed from time to time for a period not exceeding twenty-five years as provided by law.

Sixth: That the number of Directors or Trustees of said corporation shall be seven (7), and that the names and residences of the Directors or Trustees, who are appointed for the first year, or to serve until the election of successors, of such officers, are as follows, to-wit:

NAMES: RESIDENCES:
JOHN BENDER, Hamilton, Ohio;
FRED SEARLS, Nevada City, California;
J. C. CAMPBELL, Nevada, City California;

D. E. MORGAN, Nevada City, California;
W. T. FARRAR, San Francisco, California;
J. M. DUKE, San Francisco, California;

GEORGE W. HENDERSON, New York City, New York;

Seventh: The affairs of this corporation are to be conducted by and vested in a Board of seven (7) Directors, who shall be elected at the annual stockholders' meeting to be held at the second Saturday in February of each year, commencing with the year 1904, at the hour of two o'clock P. M.;

The intrinsic value of a thing is what it will bring.

W. T. Farrar	Five (5)	$5.00
J. M. Duke	Five (5)	$5.00
George W. Henderson	Five (5)	$5.00

Tenth: That the stock of this company shall be forever non-assessable.

Eleventh: That the highest amount of indebtedness or liability, direct or contingent, to which the corporation is at any time to be subject, is Five hundred thousand ($500,000.00) Dollars;

Twelfth: That the private property of members or stockholders of said corporation shall be exempt from liability for corporate debts;

Thirteenth: That all elections of Directors, each stockholder entitled to vote shall be entitled to as many votes as shall equal the number of his shares of stock multiplied by the number of Directors to be elected, and he may cast all such votes for a single Director or may distribute them among the number to be voted for or any two or more of them, as he may see fit.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and seals, this ninth day of January, A. D. one thousand and nine hundred and four.
